

The Great Horned Owl: is one of Canada's most common birds of prey, notable for its large size and prominent ear tufts or "horns." This predator has big yellow eyes, a curved beak & claws, and long fluffy feathers. Its tends to be brown or grey-brown and is Alberta's Provincial bird.

