

Badlands: In the heart of Alberta lies the "badlands," an area that looks like the Arizona desert. The badlands are home to a vast prehistoric graveyard. Many of the dinosaur fossils found in Canada come from the Alberta badlands.

