

Calgary Stampede: The now world famous agricultural festival began as an exhibition in 1886, but took its wild west format and the Stampede name in 1912. Today's ten day festival of shows, races, rides and more began in 1968 and now brings over 1.2 million visitors to Calgary every year!

