

Parliament, Victoria: Victoria is the capital of British Columbia. Located on Vancouver Island, Victoria is known as the City of Gardens. Being on the Pacific coast means that Victoria has a much milder climate than most of the country. The Parliament Buildings pictured here were built in 1860, and were called the Bird Cages.

