

Prairie Crocus: The school children in Manitoba chose the prairie crocus for the floral emblem in 1906. Appearing in the early spring this flower is various shades of purple, from a bluish to a pale colour. The crocus has a furry covering to protect it from the sometimes cold Manitoba nights.

