

Royal Canadian Mint: The Royal Canadian Mint's facility in Winnipeg produces billions of coins each year. This is where our Canadian circulation coins are made, as well as those for governments all around the world. So check your pocket for a little bit of Manitoba.

