

Cape Spear: The oldest surviving lighthouse in Newfoundland is located at the most easterly point of land in North America. Restored to its 1839 appearance, the site is surrounded by spectacular scenery and wildlife such as whales, seabirds and icebergs.

