

Pitcher Plant: The Pitcher-plant is a carnivorous plant. Carnivorous plants evolved to make up for inadequate nitrogen in the soil by eating insects! This plant became the Provincial floral emblem of Newfoundland and Labrador in 1954.

