

Puffins : The puffin is the Provincial bird of Newfoundland. It is a small, pigeon-sized seabird with colourful beaks and clown like features. Puffins live at sea and are excellent swimmers, using their wings to essentially 'fly' underwater while using their feet to control direction.

