

Nunavut: Covers 21% of Canada's land mass. Population is 28,700 people. Iqaluit is the Capital and the largest city with 5,236 people. Nunavut is Canada's largest territory, and our newest too. Nunavut was created in 1999 when it split from the North West Territories.

