

Curling: Curling has been an olympic sport since 1998. Oddly enough though, the first Olympic medals in curling were awarded for the 1924 games due to a 2006 decision to retroactively include curling (which had previously been a demonstration sport) in the all time medal count.

