

The Beaver: Featured on stamps and coins, the beaver has been one of our most influential animals. Many early settlers relied on pelts as a source of income and their trade was the backbone of the Hudsons Bay Company.

