

Batoche was first settled in by Métis in 1872 and has been a national historic site since 1923. The Battle of Batoche took place during the Northwest Rebellion of 1885, and resulted in the defeat of Louis Riel and his forces by Major General Frederick Middleton and his Northwest Field Force.

