

Sharp Tailed Grouse: Also known as "fire bird" by First Nations, Saskatchewan's Provincial bird has a fairly short tail with the two, long, squared middle feathers giving the bird its name. They have mottled dark and light brown feathers on a white background and are lighter on the belly.

