

Saskatchewan has a long and proud history of playing football. The Saskatchewan Rough Riders have been playing out of Regina since 1910. The Riders have won the Grey Cup 4 times including in 2013. One great tradition is for fans to wear watermelon helmets in support of their team.

