

Saskatoon: It is called "the city of bridges" for the many spans across the South Saskatchewan River and its memorable name is borrowed from a local wild berry. Saskatoon is placed along the scenic river and filled with wide streets and green parks.

