

The Avro Arrow or CF-105 was a highly advanced interceptor aircraft designed and built by Avro Canada. The Arrow could achieve speeds of Mach 3 at 60 000 feet. Intended to supply the airforce into the 1960's the Arrow project was cancelled in 1959 amidst much controversy.

