

Canada Goose: Known for its loud honking call, and "V" shaped flying formation, the Canada Goose can be seen ushering in the seasons as it migrates. Its distinctive white "chinstrap", dark head and long neck, a plump body and webbed feet are characteristic of these big birds.

