

Dredge: During the Klondike gold rush of 1896, thousands of miners descended on the region in hopes of striking it rich. Interpretive activities include tours of Dawson City's historic buildings, Dredge No. 4 tours, Bear Creek Complex tours, and numerous special events.

