

Yukon: Covers 4.8% of Canada's land mass. Population is 29,900 people. Whitehorse is the Capital and the largest city with 23,000 people. During the gold rush of the 1890s, Dawson was the largest Canadian city west of Winnipeg and had 40,000 people!

