

Alberta: Covers 6.6% of Canada's land mass. Population is 3,113,000 people. Edmonton is the Capital and also the largest city with 993,200 people. Alberta is rich in oil, resources and of course dinosaur bones.

