

Located in Edmonton, the Art Gallery of Alberta or AGA is designed to emulate the the city's Northern location. Architect Randall Stout took the North Saskatchewan River and the Northern Lights as inspiration for this 30 000 square foot, world class facility.

