

Albertosaurus : Millions of years before the T-Rex roamed the earth, the Albertosaurus was Western Canada's most feared predator. This 10m, 2500kg monster sometimes hunted in packs feasting on plant eating dinosaurs. Imagine what the Calgary Stampede must have been like then!

