

Elk Island National Park is just a half hour drive from Edmonton making it a destination for day trippers and adventurers alike. The park is home to both the largest and the smallest land mammals in North America, the wood bison and pygmy shrew.

