

The Nikka Yuko Japanese Garden in Lethbridge, Alberta was established in 1967, celebrating its 50th anniversary in 2017. Landscape architect Dr. Tadashi Kubo designed the garden. It follows the principles of Japanese garden design, while respecting the realities of the local climate.

