

Terry Fox: A hero whose determination and generosity inspires many the world over. In 1980 Terry began a cross Canada awareness run having lost one leg to cancer. Terry was forced to abandon his effort after covering 5 373 km. Cancer took his life in June 1981 at the age of 22.

