

Autumn in many parts of Canada is a time for harvest traditions. From picking your own pumpkin and trying out a corn maze to wagon rides, haunted houses, coloured leaves and apple orchards, fall is a great season for young and old alike.

