

Hot air balloon festivals have become more popular as more pilots take to the air. These colourful events often include mass flights that fill the sky with a rainbow of balloons of all shapes. The modern festival will usually include a midway and musical entertainment.

