

A Pow Wow is an event where both Native American and non-Native American people dance, sing, socialize, and honour American Indian culture. Pow-wows can be 5 to 6 hours to one week long. Usually there is a dancing competition, with prizes for the winning dancers.

