

Manitoba's coat of arms takes its imagery from history and local legend. The crown and cross are a nod to the British heritage while the beaver, the bison and scenery below are a reminder of the Province's natural beauty. The motto says Glorious and Free.

