

Bricklin SV-1 is a sports car that was assembled in Saint John. Manufactured from 1974 until late 1975 the car was the creation of Malcolm Bricklin. Unable to produce vehicles fast enough to make a profit, the company went into receivership, owing the New Brunswick government millions of dollars with fewer than 3 000 cars built.

