

Hopewell Cape: The Bay of Fundy, which presides over the entire southern edge of New Brunswick, is lined with sandstone cliffs and warm sandy beaches. Fundy National Park has hiking trails, eroded bluffs, and ecosystems unique to the waters of Fundy Bay.

