

Newfoundland's flag: The white symbolizes snow and ice. Blue is for the sea, red for the human effort and gold for confidence in the future. The two red triangles represent the mainland and island. The trident on the flag represents the province's dependence on fishing and the sea.

