

Wheelchair Curling: This sport is relatively new, having only been played in Canada since the early 2000s. Being included as a Paralympic sport at the 2006 Torino Games brought a good deal of attention. The Canadian team skipped by Chris Daw brought home gold medals.

