

Olympic Flame: The olympic flame in Vancouver was lit after a journey that started in Greece and then went on to cover a total of 45 000 kms as it criss crossed Canada. An amazing 12 000 different people had the opportunity to carry a torch. Wayne Gretzky lit the official flame.

