

Sault Ste. Marie Canal: Built in 1895 to bypass the rapids between lakes Huron and Superior, Sault Ste. Marie Canal completed an all-Canadian route from the Lakehead to the Atlantic Ocean. The Powerhouse and the Emergency Swing Bridge Dam are unique features of the site.

