

The word ski comes from "stick of wood" and has been used as a form of transportation for some 6000 years. Today Canadians cross country ski for sport, recreation and as a form of transport in isolated areas. Skiing is an activity enjoyed coast to coast so if you get the chance, go for it!

