

Roses are red,
So is this Lily.
Have a great Mother's day,
and be sure to act silly!

Happy Mother's Day

Western Red Lily: Also known as the prairie lily, this flower became Saskatchewan's floral emblem in 1941. The western red lily is quite rare, and is a protected species, growing in moist meadows and semi-wooded areas. Its bright red blossoms make it easy to see.

