

Thanksgiving: In Canada we celebrate thanksgiving on the second Monday of October. The roots of this holiday are likely linked to harvest festivals that gave thanks for the year's crops. Today thanksgiving is a time to spend with family and to reflect on the years fortunes.

