

Yukon Parks: While Kluane National Park is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, boasting Canada's highest mountains and the largest non-polar icefield in the world, most of the territory is an unspoiled paradise for hikers, canoists and eco-tourists alike.

